

JUDICIARY
THE BAHAMAS

TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR NEW CIVIL PROCEDURE RULES

We are aware that a number of judicial officers, lawyers and other persons who intended to join the virtual seminar held on 22 February, 2022 on the new Civil Procedure Rules were unable to connect to the link. This occurred after 100 participants joined the seminar which was the limit on the Zoom account used to host the event. We regret any inconvenience caused by this limitation and have now taken steps to increase the maximum number of participants to 500 for future virtual CPR Training sessions. Accordingly, going forward we will be able to accommodate all interested persons who wish to participate in the virtual sessions.

The recording of the virtual Training session on Tuesday, 22 February, 2022 together with the PowerPoint slides used in the presentation are now available on the website of the Judiciary. You can access the website at www.bahamasjudiciary.com to watch the recorded session and view the slides.

You are reminded that the second virtual CPR Training seminar will take place on Wednesday, 2 March 2022 from 4:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The CAJO panel comprised of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Dennis Byron, the Hon. Mr. Justice Adrian Saunders and the Hon. Mr. Justice Peter Jamadar will conduct that session. They will be focusing in detail on Part 1 – the Overriding Objective – and Parts 25, 26 & 27- Case Management. The Zoom link will be circulated prior to the event.

All stakeholders are encouraged to attend the virtual seminar on 2 March, 2022.

Office of the Chief Justice
24 February, 2022